NEGRO IS KILLED BY STOCK TRAIN

WILL GUNN, RETURNING TO MARYVILLE, SLEEPS ON TRACK.

WAS BOOTLEGGING FROM ST. JOSEPH

Had in Possession Three Bottles of Whisky—Formerly Served Penitentiary Sentence for Stealing.

Will Gunn, colored, was killed by an extra stock train on the Burlington about six miles north of Maryville about 2 o'clock this morning.

Gunn was a passenger on the afternoon train to St. Joseph. He evidently went to buy whisky, for he came back on the evening train with a good supply. Sheriff Ed Wallace and some of the deputy sheriffs were at the station, and it is thought that Gunn went on to Pickering and got off the train there. Gunn most likely started back to Maryville, and after walking a mile or two from Pickering lay down on the Burlington track and fell asleep.

Coroner William Wallis, Jr., held a view inquest. The remains were brought to the Price & McNeal undertaking parlors. The negro had been cut to pieces by the train.

Three full pint bottles of whisky and evidence that Gunn had two dozen pint bottles were found by the authorities.

The body of Gunn was found by the section gang of Pickering on their way to work this morning. They sent word here for Coroner Wallis and Sheriff Wallace. The body was removed from the track while awaiting the arrival of the authorities.

Gunn is survived by his mother, Mrs. Susan Gunn, and also by his wife. He leaves five brothers, Emmett, Adolphus and Ofice Gunn of Maryville; Willis and Arthur Gunn of Council Bluffs, and one sister, Mrs. Carrie Bell of Omaha.

Gunn was a brother of Mrs. Minnie Wilson, who was murdered in Omaha, June 18. Mrs. Wilson was stabbed and died from the effect of the knife wound. Gunn was brought to Maryville for burial.

The funeral of Gunn will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the African Methodist church. The place of burial will be in the Gunn private burying ground.

Gunn had served a penitentiary sentence for breaking in the saloon of John Kane and stealing liquor of the value of $30. This was in 1905.

A G. O. P. BREACH

SORE SPOT OVER DICKEY DOMINATION IN PARTY RANKS.

TWO MEMBERS RESIGNED

Defeat of Senatorial Candidate Predicted as a Result of the Chairmanship Fight.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Jefferson City, Aug. 24.—When the Republican platform committee reconvened yesterday candidates and state committeemen tried to appear cheerful and create the impression that an eleventh hour attempt of Judge Henry Lamm, candidate for governor, to heal the breach made by the fight over the state chairmanship, had been successful.

But it was evident that the wounds were deep and that the G. O. P. forces would go into the campaign divided among themselves.

The action of Walter S. Dickey, candidate for senator, and his crowd in riding rough shod over Judge Lamm in the selection of a chairman and the words used by Judge Lamm's friends in resenting it were things that could not be wiped away by a speech by Judge Lamm before the convention when he accepted his defeat and promised co-operation of himself and friends with the state committee.

Two May Not Serve.

Louis Hoffman, who was elected secretary of the state committee, refused to accept the place.

J. H. Bothwell, vice chairman of the committee, also announced he probably would not serve.

Announcement was made today that the friends of Henry Lamm, nominee for governor, would conduct his campaign independently of the state committee.

Committee "Dickeyized."

Throughout the most bitter attacks by Judge Lamm's friends following the selection of T. W. Hukriede, Dickey's choice, as state chairman, the senatorial candidate remained silent, apparently content in the knowledge that he had been successful in "Dickeyizing" the state committee. The term "Dickeyized" was coined when it became apparent that a majority of the committeemen were willing to sacrifice the custom of permitting the gubernatorial candidate to name the chairman, so that they could count on the Dickey purse pouring forth a golden stream for use in their districts in the campaign.

Judge Lamm and all other candidates had been forced from the room while the election was being held. They were seated about the lawn in front of the library, openly attacking the methods which barred them from the deliberations of their party organization, when word came from the committee room that Hukriede had been named. Immediately afterward Otto Stifel of St. Louis emerged red in the face and announced he had resigned from the committee. He was followed by John H. Bothwell, Lamm's compromise candidate for chairman; S. Mark Dodd of St. Louis county; Dr. Richard Bartho, candidate for congress and committeeman from the eleventh district by proxy, and Fred Weitz of St. Louis.

Predict Dickey Defeat.

These committeemen declared they were through—that they would participate no longer in the meetings of the committee. With Judge Lamm they gathered in a group to discuss what action should be taken. Judge Lamm counseled moderation, but his friends were loud in their protestations that they had been "rolled."

"My respect for Judge Lamm," Stifel said, "prompted me to protest in the most emphatic manner against what I decried as a humiliation to the noblest candidate Missouri ever had. The friends of Judge Lamm will not allow a coterie of political tricksters to check the wishes of the people of the state."

Stifel predicted that, as a result of the action of the Dickey forces, Dickey would be defeated.

The platform was adopted yesterday afternoon. There is the usual affirmation of party principles as promulgated in the national platform. There is a special declaration in favor of the protective tariff and for the protection of American citizens in Mexico. It is declared that the state government under the domination of what is termed "an incompetent Democratic machine" should be changed.

Mrs. A. C. Forney and children of Oelrichs, S. D., who have been visiting Mrs. Forney's father, G. A. Hoffman, for the summer, returned to their home this week.

ELMO AND PARNELL IN MIDST OF 3-DAY CELEBRATIONS.

CANDIDATES ON HAND

Brewster, Dawson, Geiger, Blagg and Other Notable Speakers—Ball Games Each Day.

W. A. Blagg was the speaker at the Elmo picnic yesterday afternoon. This was the first day of the picnic and was Old Settlers' Day. Only a fair crowd was in attendance, as a number of the Elmo people were in Maryville attending the circus.

John M. Dawson, candidate for circuit judge on the Democratic ticket, was the speaker at the picnic today. Sheriff Ed Wallace and E. C. Moberly, candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket, were also in attendance at the picnic today. Several other nominees on the Democratic ticket attended.

Friday is to be Republican day, and R. R. Brewster of Kansas City is scheduled to speak. A number of Republicans will probably attend, including the candidates on the ticket this fall.

The picnic is being held in Ferguson's park, and the music is being furnished by the Elmo band.

Picnic at Parnell Today.

The picnic at Parnell, in the park of that town, opened today with a good sized crowd in attendance. Walter S. Dickey, candidate for United States senator, was scheduled to speak today, but was unable to be present. Dr. Jacob E. Geiger, Republican candidate for congressman, was in attendance and delivered an address.

On Friday, Rev. W. E. Tinney will be one of the speakers, while on the closing day of the picnic John M. Dawson and W. A. Blagg will speak.

The Rosendale band will furnish the music, and free entertainment was given by the colored jubilee singers. The Parnell base ball team will play a series of three games. ONLY ONE WAY TO SETTLE STRIKE

R. R. EXECUTIVES BELIEVE EIGHT-HOUR DAY SOLUTION.

BOTH SIDES CONFER ON WILSON'S PLAN

Increase of Freight Rates Suggested as Means of Counterbalancing Added Wage Expense.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Daniel Willard president of the Baltimore & Ohio, President Holden of the Burlington, and Judge R. S. Lovett of the Union Pacific went into conference with President Wilson at 12:40 this afternoon.

They refused to discuss the strike situation as they entered the White House. It is rumored when the executive committee composed of these three railroad men placed a statement containing the plan for accepting the president's proposition before the entire assemblage of railway presidents, that a heated discussion arose which threatened to be extended over the entire assembly. They then adjourned until 3 o'clock and it is believed the sub-committee went to the White House to report the development to President Wilson.

Railway executives with the president only feel that minute arrangements can be made for further conference between the president and Senator Newlands and Representative Adamson to discuss the legislature details of the proposed settlement plan. As an indication of divided sentiment among the railway executives, a statement was issued by Walter D. Hines, chairman of the executive committee of the Santa Fe, vigorously critising the present positions as "preposterous," and expressed the belief that a general strike would be averted.

It became evident today that most of the railroad executives have come to believe that there can be only one way of preventing a strike and that is by accepting the 8-hour plan. The chief effort in their own conferences was to find some scheme by which an 8-hour day may be put in operation on all the roads at the least added expense.

May Ask Higher Rate.

One of the means for recouping suggested by the President to the railroad systems in his outline of his position was through an increase in freight rates. It was pointed out that the President cannot directly ask the Interstate Commerce Commission to grant increases to the railroads. Congress, however, might adopt a resolution directing the commission, in view of what it considers an unprecedented situation, to grant higher rates.

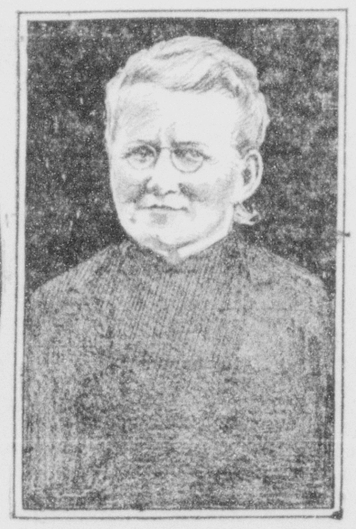
Congress also might adopt a resolution directing the commission to investigate all matters involved in the present controversy and the whole subject of the relations o frailroads and their employees. One result expected from the conference is an early effort to pass the bill introduced several months ago to increase the commission's membership from seven to nine.

With the railroads insisting that they must have higher freight rates for the increased wages to be granted, four large associations of shippers today appealed to the Interstate Commerce Commission for rate reduction on food products.

Washington, Aug. 24.—The White House today let it be known that the President expects a definite answer from the railroad presidents before night.

Preliminary Hearing of Mrs. Gilmore in the Morning Before Justice Johnson

MRS. ELLA SHIPPS.



MRS. Q. A. GILMORE.

The preliminary hearing of Mrs. Q. A. Gilmore, charged with the murder of Mrs. Ella Shipps a week ago Wednesday, will be held in the morning before Justice W. L. Johnson at 9 o'clock.

William G. Sawyers, prosecuting attorney, will probably put three witnesses on the stand. They will probably be Bert Mack, Glenn Reece and Mark Dalrymple. They were eye witnesses to the shooting. The defense will probably not put anyone on the stand, and will merely cross-examine the state's witnesses.

Whether efforts to obtain bail for Mrs. Gilmore will be made tomorrow was not known today. Since the case will probably come up at the September term of the circuit, some were of the opinion that no effort will be made to do this. Mrs. Gilmore still refuses to discuss the shooting. She has had several visitors who have offered her assistance.

The preliminary tomorrow will probably not last over thirty minutes. Mrs. Gilmore and her attorneys, Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison, will attend.

"Anything to beat Wilson—anything but the truth," says the New York Times, commenting on Republican tactics.

Probably if Mr. Hughes had not remained silent he never would have been nominated. His talking now has "spilled the beans."

AND SO WAS MR. HUGHES.

Said Candidate Hughes at Long Beach on Monday:

I am against every abuse of community interests for the sake of private advantage. I did something in New York along that line, and I have not changed my mind a bit in regard to it. I also believe that regulation and supervision by the government is a mockery unless it is just and square with the facts. I put that flag up in New York also, and I never hauled it down—and I never propose to.

There are seven "I's" in that brief quotation—and 70 less congenial words. The word "the" is fairly common in English, and so is the word "and," yet Mr. Hughes used his favorite pronoun as often—exactly as often—as he used both the others.

Poor man, he has nothing but himself to talk about. It would never do to mention a party led by Penrose and Butler, Smoot and Root, Mann and Crane, in a stump speech on special privilege. So his conjugations are confined to the first person singular.

"Where was I? What was I saying?" asked a noisy egotist who had been interrupted. "You were saying 'I,'" replied one of his victims. And so, when last heard from, was Mr. Hughes.—St. Louis Republic.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lyle went to Clarinda today to attend the fair.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed proposals will be received by the board of directors of Hughes township, Nodaway county, Missouri, until 11 o'clock a. m. of Monday, September the Fourth (4th), 1916, at which time all bids will be opened for the following improvements on the public road leading from Maitland to Graham, Missouri, commencing at the Nodaway river bridge and extending easterly approximately 1,600 feet:

3,000 cubic yards of grading.

3,570 square yards of reinforced concrete pavement.

3,200 lineal feet of 3x12-inch white oak header boards.

144 cubic yards of reinforced concrete for three bridges.

28 Luten trusses clear span 12 feet.

12 Luten Trusses clear span 14 feet.

All of the above materials and labor to be let under contract.

All proposals shall be on blank forms furnished by the clerk of the board of directors or the Leslie-Barnes Engr Co. and shall be accompanied by cash or a certified check in the sum of $425.00, made payable to the county treasurer of Nodaway county, Missouri.

The said board of directors reserve the right to accept or reject any or all bids.

Executed by the board of road directors of Hughes township, Nodaway county, Missouri.

GEORGE A. GREESON,
Clerk.

The Democratic Platform

The principal points of the Democratic platform, as reported by Senator James A. Reed and as adopted unanimously by the Democratic convention yesterday at Jefferson City are as follows:

Record of Democratic Congress.

The Democratic congress exposed and drove out the organized lobby headed by "the National Manufacturers' association." It is now organizing a system of land banks enabling farmers to obtain long time loans at reasonable rates. It has helped farmers by placing agricultural implements on the free list, by increasing the appropriation and powers of the agricultural department, and by appropriating $80,000,000 for good roads throughout the country. The congress practically abolished panics by establishing a sound currency and banking system under the federal reserve act.

Labor Legislation.

The Democratic congress abolished government by injunction, gave labor and farm organizations statutory recognition, abolished involuntary servitude in the merchant marine, enacted an eight-hour law for women and children workers in the District of Columbia, extended the eight-hour law to Alaskan employes, provided for industrial education, abolished Republican stop-watch methods in the navy yard, provided for the construction of battleships in government navy yards, investigated and exposed intolerable labor conditions of West Virginia and Michigan mines, passed the workingmen's compensation law for government employes, established a bureau for the study of child disease and prohibited the shipment of factory products of child labor in interstate commerce.

Record of Democratic Legislatures.

The Missouri Democratic legislatures have enacted anti-trust laws, laws encouraging agricultural, mining and dairy industries, adequate labor and strict usury laws and laws supporting the public school system, the public school fund, the university, the normal schools and the eleemosynary institutions.

Recent Enactments.

Among recent laws passed are the creation of a public service commission, the establishment of a state highway department, the policy of state highway department, the policy of state aid for schools, the creation of the board of pardons and paroles the provision for absentee voters, the blue sky law, the corporation supervision law, the banking revision law, the law providing for the employment of convicts on public works, the insurance rating and supervision act and the commission government law.

Farm Interests.

We have submitted a constitutional amendment providing for the establishment of a state land bank and credit system and have already passed a law articulating with the Smith-Lever act, enabling the agricultural interests to receive federal aid. We favor the enactment of laws to protect the farmer from adulterated seeds and favor a revision of the dairy laws to meet the needs of modern dairying.

To Support Health Boards.

The party stands for adequate financial support of health boards and health officers of the state, counties and cities, for the maintenance of county tuberculosis hospitals and public nurse service, and for the care of dependent ex-confederate soldiers. They pledge the people that the business of the state shall be conducted economically and efficiently, providing for a method of estimating the revenue expenditures for the full understanding of the general assembly.

New State Constitution.

The party favors the submission by the next general assembly to the voters of Missouri of the question of a need of a new state constitution. They pledge themselves to the enactment of a just and adequate workmen's compensation law.

Public Education.

The party reaffirms their devotion to the cause of public education and pledges its support to developing the character of the youths of the state. They also pledge themselves to the improvement of rural school and country roads and will co-operate with the national government with that end in view.

Missouri's Development.

The platform indorses the records of the state and national administration, paying a high tribute to Senators Stone and Reed and to Congressman Champ Clark. In conclusion, the party urges co-operation in organized activity for the development of southern Missouri and the state at large.

Famous Tyrolese Sharpshooter, Who Killed Many Italian Officers, Has Been Captured.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Venice, Aug. 24.—Cecchet, a famous Tyrolese sharpshooter and chamois hunter, who, since the beginning of the war, has exercised his skill from lofty points of vantage, singling out particular Italian officers or soldiers, has been captured.

It was boasted by the Austrians that Cecchet had shot down 180 men in a year. Among his victims was General Centore, it is asserted. The general was killed while riding at the head of his troops beyond Ala in the first month of the war. Cecchet is treated like any other prisoner.

Sherman Shore of Williamson, Ia., who has been visiting Marvin and Della McNeal of Pickering and other friends in Maryville and Graham, returned to his home Wednesday, accompanied by Marvin McNeal, who will visit at Chariton, Williamson, and attend the state fair at Des Moines.

FOR A WINTER MEAL

JUDICIOUS CANNING OF VEGETABLES SUPPLIES VARIETY.

Water-Bath Canner Recommended as Simplest for Young Housewife—Wash Boiler May Be Used.

Whole tomatoes, green peppers, spinach, and corn on the cob every day next winter! Doesn't the thought suggest a pleasant departure from too much meat in the diet?

Every woman on the farm should can surplus fruits and vegetables during the summer months for winter use, according to Miss Addie D. Root of the Missouri college of agricuture. By so doing, the cost of a valuable food will be decreased and meals during the winter will be made more appetizing. Fruits and vegetables give variety to the diet and supply certain food materials which are necessary to maintain health. They do not leave us in need of a spring tonic.

In the day of our grandmothers the canning of vegetables was little understood and results were seldom successful. We know today that foods spoil from the action of small organisms called bacteria, which float in the air around us and we know how to kill them. If these are killed in the process of canning and the jars sealed airtight, food will keep indefinitely. Different kinds of bacteria are found in different kinds of foods. Some kinds require a higher temperature to kill them than others, and for this reason some fruits and vegetables must be cooked longer than others during the canning process.

For the beginner the water-bath canner is recommended as the simplest form. It can be arranged in any home with but small expense. It consists of a containing vessel with a rack and a cover. A wash boiler may be used. A rack may be made of thin boards or heavy wire. It should be raised three-fourths of an inch from the bottom of the boiler, or enough so that water can circulate freely under the jars. This prevents the jars from getting too hot. Water should be an inch over the tops of the jars.

Before placing the jars in the boiler, screw the top down as tightly as possible with thumb and little finger. If screwed too tightly, expansion will cause the jars to break. The cans are removed most easily by means of a can lifter.

WANTS A "MALISHA" FOUND

Note, Laboriously Penned, Asks General Funston to Locate Tom Hawk, Soldier Boy From Missouri.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 24.—"Mr. Funston: Will you please send this letter to Mr. Tom Hawk. He is somewhere in your army as a 'malisha.'"

This note, laboriously penned, greeted the eyes of General Funston upon opening one of the hundreds of letters which come to him daily. Enclosed was the epistle to Mr. Tom Hawk which the general had been delegated to deliver. No address was given. The fact that the letter was mailed from Sprinfield, Mo., affords the only clue to assist in locating Mr. Hawk. General Funston intends forwarding the letter for Mr. Hawk to Laredo, where the Missouri state troops are concentrated.

JAPAN NOT WATCHING US

University School of Journalism Teacher, Just Back From Japan, Gives Observations.

That the apparent belief on the part of a great many Americans that a war between the United States and Japan will come soon is a remote possibility; that Japan is not keeping vigil upon the United States so much as upon the movements of China and that the Japanese are a versatile and progressive people, is the opinion expressed by Prof. F. L. Martin, of the school of journalism, who returned Tuesday with his family from a stay in Japan that lasted over a period of fifteen months, says the University Missourian.

"Do you think that the Jape are watching the movements of this country and that they are thinking of making war upon us at some time after the European struggle is over?" Pro. Martin was asked.

"I do not," he stated. "There seems to be a feeling among a great many people here that the Japanese are standing ready to grab at the throat of the United States, but I think there never was an idea so mistaken as that. During my stay in Tokio not once have I heard a word of ill feeling expressed against the people here. On the other hand, however, the Japanese are paying a great deal of attention to what the Chinese are accomplishing, and they are thinking a great deal as to just what part the Japanese will play in the future political status of that country.

"Now, the only thing that I can think of that would prompt a war between the United States and Japan would be for us to interfere in the case of Japanese intervention in China, but I cannot imagine our soldiers getting down in the trenches for the sake of the yellow men. I think the whole trouble lies in the fact that the Japanese have us bluffed. When a minor controversy between the United States and Japan arises people here make a lot more over it than the Japanese do."

HOPKINS CHAUTAUQUA PAYS

Committee Sells Enough Tickets to Cover Guarantee, With Per Cent of Gate Receipts.

Towns may come and towns may go but Hopkins will go on forever as being the best town on the map, the people here having again manifested their worth and appreciation of something good by making the local committee safe in its guarantee of $600 to bring the chautauqua to our midst, the advance sale of season tickets amounting to $573 and with the per cent from the daily gate receipts (after $400 has been taken in) the amount will likely be more than the required sum.

The chautauqua is a community enterprise in which the best people of any locality should all be interested, and the people of this community are showing their interest in a very substantial way. The programs so far have been most satisfactory, "getting more than our money's worth" being heard on every hand.

Mr. Nayle, the superintendent, is a man of pleasing address, being, as Dr. Miller says, a great big spike rather than a ten penny in the chautauqua work.—Hopkins Journal.

Dog Attacks Woman.

The big yellow dog formerly belonging to Will Wallace, but which has been a sort of a tramp since the owner moved from here to Parnell, attacked Mrs. H. S. Maxwell one day last week and bit her quite severely and might have inflicted serious wounds if Price West had not happened along in time to take a club and beat the dog away. Chief of Police Whitten was notified and took the dog out of town and shot it.—Hopkins Journal.

NEW FORD TO APPEAR SOON

1917 Model, Conforming in Looks to Higher Priced Cars, Delights Dealers—Price Low, Too.

Its new, quite new, extremely new—yes, very new. Why, the 1917 model Ford design. The familiar lines of the Ford will not be seen again. Not in the new cars, for now comes the announcement officially from the Barmann Auto company that the 1917 model Ford, which will be on the market in a few days, will have very marked changes in body design. A stream line body, fenders that curve to fit the wheels, a different radiator and, better still, the price will be the lower one announced a few weeks ago, are the new features of this model. In a few words, it's a better looking car for a less price.

The same famous engines will continue to be the motive power. There are no changes outside of the body design except in the radiator, which, while being a different shape, also has a different construction, that gives a greater cooling capacity. It will be black in color without the brass finish.

The new model Ford as it comes in its new design, conforms to the higher priced cars in appearance. Dealers are enthusiastic over the new model.

HOME FROM STATE MEETING.

George Robb Ellison Back From Jefferson City Convention.

George Robb Ellison returned last night from the meeting of the state committee and the convention of the Democrats in Jefferson City Tuesday.

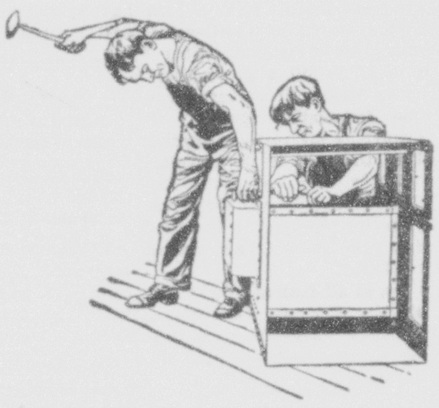
"Harmony with a big H was the keynote of the Democratic gathering at Jefferson City," said Mr. Ellison. "Everyone from Gardner down to the smallest hanger-on seemed to be intent on victory at the polls in November, and everything else was sacrificed to this main end.

"Contrast this with the Republican meeting and you can understand why we Democrats are so confident of carrying the state this fall, both for the national and state candidates."

C. P. Carr shipped 700 head of lambs from Omaha to his farm, near Maryville, and turned them into his own fields.

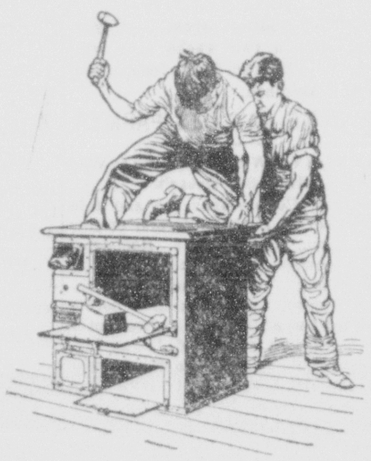
The Monarch in Course of Construction

Every door frame and angle bar is malleable iron. The top is polished perfectly smooth, then blued by electricity, making a finish that never needs polishing.



What is Malleable Iron?

The best soft gray cast iron annealed and when thoroughly annealed it becomes the best heat transmitting and resisting iron known to range consrtuction. Every joint in the Monarch is riveted and therefore gas and air tight. The rivets being wrought iron are of the same heat resisting temperment as the material they hold together. Thus making the expansion equal therefore continued expansion under these conditions do not make loose joints. The life and efficiency of a range depends on the consruction of the fire box and the fire box construction in the Monarch is built scientifically correct.



MONARCH MALLEABLE RANGE
Make Your Cooking a Daily Pleasure

The construction of the body of the Monarch Range is the best known to range manufacturers. The inner wall is of annealed copper fused steel, the outer wall of copper fused American planished steel with ⅜ inch asbestos insolation, thus making practically a rust proof body. Do not buy a range until we have shown you the Monarch Malleable Construction.

MODISTE WITH MONEY IN BANK NEARLY BURIED AS A PAUPER

Body Sent to Morgue Saved by Public Administrator.

Kansas City, Mo.—Miss E. A. Heitcamp, a hair dresser, found Miss Anna Leavy, sixty-five years old, dead in her home here. The body was taken to the morgue and would have been buried in the potter's field had not Miss Heitcamp notified Public Administrator Newell, who made a search of her home and found that she had fourteen shares in the Shapleigh Hardware company, par value $100 each; a bank book showing $492 in the Mechanics-American National bank; $14 in cash and a note for $1,500 executed in her favor in 1904 and signed, according to Miss Heitcamp, by a name which she thinks is that of a former official of the Shapleigh Hardware company, now in New York city.

Miss Leavy was a modiste, and was said to have made many of the gowns worn by queens of the Veiled Prophet.

FEDERAL MEDIATORS STOP MANY STRIKES

Forty-seven Have Been Averted Since Board Was Organized In 1913.

Washington. — The United States board of mediation and conciliation, which was called upon by the government to prevent a national strike, was created on July 15, 1913, by act of congress. Its members were appointed by President Wilson three days later, and they acted in the railroad strike situation of 1913 and a strike was averted.

According to the act under which it was created the purposes of the board are: "To settle by mediation, conciliation and arbitration all controversies concerning wages, hours of labor or conditions of employment that may arise between any common carriers engaged in the transportation of passengers or property (in interstate commerce) and their employees."

The services of the board may be sought by either or both sides. Both sides must consent before it may act. It has no peremptory powers. In the forty-seven cases in which the board has been successful, thirty-nine were settled by mediation and eight by arbitration.

Its members are William L. Chambers, chairman; Martin A. Knapp and G. W. W. Hanger.

SMALL TWINS GOOD TYPISTS.

Five-year-old Children Profit by Teachings of Parent.

Spokane, Wash.—Robert and Grace Rice, five-year-old twin children of E. I. Rice, are shorthand writers for whom their father claims a speed of a hundred words a minute, considered a remarkable record for children.

The children are speed typists and are able to better the performances of many business college graduates. They are home taught and for the last three months have had regularly two lessons a day, the practice periods being at first of very short duration, but increasing in length until now each lesson lasts fifteen minutes. Their typing has made them excellent spellers, and shorthand has led to fair proficiency in drafting.

BRIDE FOR THE SIXTH TIME.

Woman With Long Matrimonial Record Is Only Twenty-nine Years Old.

Conway, Ark.—Mrs. James Richards Lea, twenty-nine years old, became a bride for the sixth time when she was married to a man named Roberts in the courthouse here by Judge John W. Holt, according to County Clerk James A. Lea. The fifth marriage took place here about three years ago, and the bride has lived at Russellville since that time.

Mrs. Roberts is a sister of George Doss, forty-three years old, who recently eloped with Addie Pruitt, thirteen years old, that marriage having been annulled.

FLEXIBLE WOODEN SHOE SOLE

Hungarian's Invention Consists of Several Layers Gripped Together.

Budapest, Hungary.—Barna S. Kohlener, a captain of cavalry, whose military usefulness was ended when he lost an arm, has devoted himself to inventing a wooden soled shoe that shall be flexible and announces that he has solved this problem.

His sole instead of being one piece of wood is constructed of a number of layers joined together by heavy oils or fats, which thicken and grip the pieces of wood together. Captain Kohlener declares it has the elasticity of the leather sole.

"Let us shake off this foreign yoke that so demeans us," demanded E. H. Nies, "creating instead an American system. Let our hotel press show the world that we are able to run our hotels without foreign help or languages."

There were many witnesses from the Bedison neighborhood on the witness stand.

ST. LOUIS, A PROUD WINNER

Frenzied Rush of Browns to Base Ball Fame Has Changed Home City From Gloom to Joy.

New York, Aug. 24.—The frenzied rush of the Browns has changed St. Louis from a gloom-striken city to one of baseball madness; from baseball sorrow to such baseball joy as the Mississippi river town hasn't known for many, many moons.

Everything else there seems to be forgotten excepting that the amazing dash of the Browns has lifted them to within a few notches of the apex of the American League and created the possibility of a St. Louis team "horning" into the 1916 world series doings.

The St. Louis fan this season has experienced a rapid succession of baseball emotions; enthusiasm first, then pessimism, then utter disgust and anger, then the rekindling of that earlier enthusiasm which burned and glowed until now it has increased to a flame of baseball fever.

When the American League race began, the fans were enthusiastically confident. They figured that the amalgamation of the Browns and St. Louis Feds had given Fielder Jones an unbeatable team. But when the first month of battling was done, with the Browns anchored near the awful athletic craft, the St. Louis confidence oozed—and was gone!

TOO MUCH MEDICINE

People of United States Take an Enormous Amount of "Cure-All" Yearly

$141,000,000 ANNUALLY

Much Taken Without Advice of Physician and Without Any Clear Diagnosis of Illness.

The people of the United States take an enormous amount of medicine unnecessarily, says Dr. M. P. Ravenal of the department of preventive medicine of the University of Missouri. The patent medicines manufactured in this country are valued at more than $141,000,000 annually and we import almost $500,000,000 worth of drugs and medicines a year. It is impossible that this much medicine is needed in the country. A large amount of it is taken without the advice of a physician and without any clear diagnosis having been made as to illness. It stands to reason that any drug that is strong enough to produce marked effects of a curative nature must produce bad effects on the body when taken in large doses or over a long period of time.

This dependence on drugs is irrational. Drugs are powerful and should be taken only on the advice of those who have made a study of their uses and actions. Under such conditions a much smaller quantity of drugs would be taken because all physicians realize that drugs cannot cure most diseases, however useful they may be in alleviating symptoms and in assisting nature to the desired end.

Especially to be avoided are those medicines containing alcohol, opium or other habit-forming drugs. We are using less of these than we were a few years ago, but we are still using more than we should.

In some states every remedy sold for the treatment of live stock must have on its label the name of each active drug in it. Also the term "live stock remedy" is not allowed to include patent medicine primarily designed for human beings, but sometimes used for animals. Therefore, if the farmer wishes to give medicine to his pigs with safety he must be careful to do so with a remedy put out for pigs and not for his baby, because in this case there is no requirement that the active ingredients be put on the label. Is it not curious that we take better care of our animals than we do of our children?

MAJOR TO ST. LOUIS TODAY

Police Board Row Will Be Settled Now, Maybe—Painter in St. Louis to Meet Major.

St. Louis, Aug. 24.—With the return to Missouri today of Governor Major, the question as to whether the St. Louis police department is a headless body, as acting Governor Painter insists, or Samuel B. McPheeters is president of the board, as he insists, probably will be settled.

Horace S. Rumsey, excise commissioner, who has been with the governor at the Michigan resorts, returned to St. Louis last night.

Acting Governor Painter came from Jefferson City and Governor Major's stay in Missouri is expected to be brief. Rumsey said he and the governor had not completed their vacations and he thought they would return to Michigan soon, probably tonight.

"It is my opinion," said Painter, "that McPheeters is no longer head of the police department, but I did not come to the city to look the ground over with a view to appointing a successor to McPheeters. When Governor Major left he told me he would be gone three weeks. That time will be up in the morning, and the governor may be here and I may be out of the job as governor."

PAID TO SPEND.

Colonel H. C. Rogers Just Gets Rid of Thousands of Dollars.

BUT IS NOT A SPENDTHRIFT.

Chief Quartermaster of Southern Department on Funston's Staff Spends Money "Right and Left" In Little Wads of $25,000 or $50,000 In Texas.

San Antonio, Tex.—The "biggest spender" in Texas is Colonel Harry L. Rogers, but he isn't a spendthrift. His position on Funston's staff as chief quartermaster of the southern department makes it his duty to spend money "right and left" in little wads of $25,000 or $50,000. Little wads!

Just imagine a sum like one of those in greenbacks wadded up, then the squeeze removed. But Colonel Rogers is used to trifles of that sort, or at least to handling Uncle Sam's checks that represent such piles.

For instance, there are 75,000 pairs of army shoes in San Antonio. Twenty thousand pairs are at Fort Sam Houston—just sort of shelf stock. Each pair cost $2.81.

Colonel Rogers said the army is short on nothing except tent cots. They are not kept in stock, and 100,000 extra cots is a big order to fill instantly which is the reason for the shortage.

Mosquito bars are another article issued to soldiers. One hundred thousand of them cost something too. Double ones are obtained for $2.29 and single ones for $2.16. Double refers to weight and not to size. Each mosquito bar is for one bunk.

One hundred thousand single bars—and the government may have double that number—cost $216,000.

Gasoline costs the government from 21 to 26 cents a gallon, according to where it is delivered. That delivered at San Antonio is 22 cents a gallon. The previous contract price was 9 cents a gallon.

PILLORY TAMES WIFE BEATER

On Promise to Reform, Judge Brady Releases S. T. Pike.

Kansas City, Mo.—Judge J. H. Brady's walking pillory for wife abusers made a convert of one of the two Kansas side men he tried it on the first time. S. T. Pike, twenty-three years old, 841 Splitlog avenue, appeared before Judge Brady and said:

"I promise I'll go and live with my wife and be good to her. But I can't live in this city any longer. You made me go out there handcuffed and sweep in the streets. I'm disgraced, and I can't live here."

Pike was released. R. B. Stephens, Pike's companion in chains, remained obdurate. He said he would not live with his family. So Judge Brady sent him to the workhouse for a year.

MAN FELL 12 STORIES, LIVES.

Frame Scaffolding Diverts Course of Drop to Cement Pavement.

New York.—John Gervieno earned the doubtful privilege of boasting that he had fallen twelve stories to a cement pavement and lived to tell the story. He was working on the top story of a building in the course of construction when he lost his balance and toppled off the structural iron work.

The falling workman dived head first through a thin frame of scaffolding at the second floor, which changed his course and broke his fall. Instead of striking on his head on the pavement he landed in a sitting posture. While he was severely injured, physicians believe that his life would be saved.

MUSKRATS DAMAGE ROADS.

Seem to Have Conspired Against Autos In Indiana.

Valparaiso, Ind.—Muskrats seem to have conspired in the Kankakee region against the automobile and within two days caused the wreck of three cars just south of Kouts. The muskrats burrow under the gravel on the roads, and the cars break through.

The attention of the county commissioners was called recently when a Chicago man, who left no name, appeared here with one arm in a sling. His car, containing himself, wife and daughter, turned over, he said, at the same point where two other cars were upset. One woman suffered a broken arm in one of the accidents.

IMAGE A PEACE BAROMETER.

French Expect Figure's Fall to Mark End of War.

London.—High overhead above the ruined and desolate streets of Albert, in France, the great gilded figure of the Virgin with the infant Christ still hangs from the tower of the Church of Notre Dame de Brebieres. For more than a year she has now hung thus at an angle of some fifteen degrees below the horizontal, face downward to the street below, holding the infant out above her head.

In local French the belief is the day the holy figures fall will see the end of the war.

Says She Has Stingiest Husband.

Sioux City, Ia.—Charles S. Burga, a blacksmith, has not spent a nickel on his wife in the last seven years, she alleges in her petition for separate maintenance. Once he was so generous he gave her a dime to pay for a car ride to a park, but later forced her to borrow a dime to repay him, she claims.

FEEDING AN ARMY

Service of Food One of Stupendous Tasks of War.

ALL CAREFULLY PREPARED.

Collection, Dispatch, Distribution and Preparation of Food Is a Colossal Work Which Ordinary Civilian Finds It Difficult to Comprehend.

London.—The mighty work of serving ammunition to the hungry, fast firing guns of the battling armies in Europe is a subject that thrills the vast newspaper reading population of America, but the service of food to the warring troops is one of the stupendous tasks imposed by the war, but, lacking the spectacular element, this subject does not attract as much attention as the service of shell, shrapnel, rifle and machine gun cartridges, trench mortar bombs and hand grenades.

No one knows how many soldiers are in the field in Europe today, but for the sake of illustration, setting that number down as 10,000,000, the daily consumption of food by that number of troops is roughly 12,000 tons. The collection, dispatch, distribution and preparation of this food is a colossal work which the ordinary civilian finds it difficult to comprehend.

Rations are prepared in the field kitchens and served to men, as at the call to mess they file past the kitchen. In all the armies are field ovens for baking bread and portable kitchens for preparing the ration in the form of stews, soups or hash, or in whatever other way appears best for the health, comfort and spirits of the men.

In all the armies is an emergency ration issued to men when they are to be sent on duty which may keep them away from the field kitchen. The men carry this ration in their haversack. A great deal of thought has been expended on these rations, so that a soldier will have the greatest nourishment in food in the least weight and bulk.

A few stories have come over the wires or through the air about hungry soldiers in the European armies, but men conversant with military matters know that these armies, fighting as they are, are well fed and are getting as much, perhaps more, food than called for in the field ration of peace times.

HELD A ROAD WORKING "BEE."

Citizens of Cottonwood Falls and Bazaar, Kan., Put Five Miles in Shape.

Cottonwood Falls, Kan.—With motorcars loaded with picks, shovels, rakes and other road working implements a score of men from this city and Bazaar started from their respective towns recently and thoroughly worked the five mile stretch of road between. In the party of good road boosters were business men, county officials, merchants and farmers.

Each party starting from its own town worked until they had joined near the center of the five mile stretch. In addition to their hand tools the Bazaar men had horses and road scrapers to aid in the work.

HIS CARGO BECAME ALIVE.

But Part of It Wasn't Displeased With What Was Happening.

Kansas City.—Harry Deutsch, a baggageman, got a call that almost set him up in the poultry business.

A commission house on the north side had thirty cases of bad eggs it wanted dumped into the river. Deutsch backed his wagon to the river and began heaving the eggs into the water. Cries of protest came from one of the cases. Deutsch found two live little chickens and in another case two ducklings. The ducklings tumbled and tossed until they got into the water and floated away. He has the chickens.

Hen Raises Quails.

Bedford, Ind.—A son of Eliza Smith when working in a wheat field found a quail's nest containing thirteen eggs. He took the eggs to his home and put them under a setting hen. The hen hatched them out. Since then Biddy has raised them with her other chicks and seems as proud of them as though they were her own kin. She looks after them the same as the others, feeding them tiny grasshoppers, etc. The little quails run to her when she calls them and hover under her at night the same as her own chicks.

NOVELTIES IN U. S.

American Souvenir and Favor Manufacturers Aided by War.

FOREIGNERS DO EXPERT WORK

New York Corporation Which Struggled For Years Against Unequal Competition With Europeans Enlarges Force by Employing Women From France and Germany.

New York.—The curtailment of European imports resulting from the war has forced Americans to engage in scores of industries they would have been content to leave to Europeans. It is one of America's important benefits from Europe's misfortune.

One new industry is the manufacture of novelties—the paper flubdubs used for souvenirs and favors. A New York corporation which struggled for years against unequal competition with Europeans has enlarged its force by bringing from France and Germany several hundred women expert in making novelties. That company now supplies most of the novelties used in this country. Its output is worth several hundred thousand dollars a year.

Joseph Reichel, manager of a Kansas City hotel, purchased in this city $12,000 worth of souvenirs and favors to be given guests.

"American made novelties are as good as those imported from Europe before the war," Mr. Reichel said. "When importations stopped makers here tried American girls in their shops, but they were not so rapid as French and German workers and the quality of their product was not so high. So the manufacturers brought hundreds of French and Germans to New York for the work. For obvious reasons they put the French in one room and the Germans in another."

MINER FINDS QUEER BEETLES.

Strange Insects With Markings That Puzzle Scientists.

Portland, Ore. — Beetles bearing Masonic and other markings that have proved a puzzle to the Carnegie institute have been found by Fred Steen of the Steen mine in the Cornucopia district in Oregon.

The insects are of the general type of the long horned wood borer, but according to the Carnegie institute there is an apparent variation from any hitherto known species.

The backs are black and the markings are traced as though in white ink. Some markings form a combination of letters and Arabic numerals. Many have markings "V U 6." Others have the Masonic emblem of the square and compass plainly discernable.

PAY FINES IN INSTALLMENTS.

How Law Has Worked In Illinois. Only Fourteen Cases In Year.

Chicago.—For a year Illinois has had a law permitting judges after fining a defendant to admit him to probation and allow him to pay the fine in installments so that he might support his family instead of working out the fine by labor in prison.

But since its passage the law has been used in only fourteen instances. Two of the defendants have paid their fines in full, five have paid a part, two are trying to have their fines remitted, two have paid nothing, one has just been fined, one has absconded and one is in jail.

DINNER FOR DOGS.

It Was a Birthday Party, and Bones Were In the Dessert.

Lorain, O.—Pedro, three years old, was the guest of honor at a dog party given by Miss Leota Babcock, daughter of A. H. Babcock, capitalist.

Pedro is Miss Babcock's pet French bulldog, and the party was in celebration of his third birthday anniversary. Frenchie Harris, Tip Reed, Fox Henry, Queenie Roth and Curly Stack were guests. Dog biscuit was a feature of the menu, while meaty bones provided a dessert. An imitation cat operated by clockwork was provided for amusement.

Just as Scores of Maryville People Have.

Waiting doesn't pay.
If you neglect kidney backache,
Urinary troubles often follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for kidney backache, and for other kidney ills.

Maryville citizens endorse them.

Mrs. Hattie Hogue, 121 Hester street, Maryville, says: "For at least five years I had trouble with my back and kidneys. A dull ache settled just across the small of my back. When I tried to bend or lift I got a sharp catch in my back. My kidneys acted much too frequently, especially at night, disturbing my rest and making me feel all tired out in the morning. Doan's Kidney Pills gave very fine benefit at once and continued use brought lasting results. It has been some time now since I have needed such a medicine."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hogue had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

OLD GAME CATCHES FARMER.

Sends Cash to "Widow" Coming to Wed Him—She Doesn't.

Eastford, Conn.—Hear the sad tale Philip Voorhis, bachelor farmer of this quiet town, tells. In a Rochester (N. Y.) newspaper he read an ad. A lonely young widow of that city yearned for a good, true husband. Voorhis answered the ad. and, he avows, got a reply. All that was needed was $18, and she would hurry to Eastford, meet him, perhaps happily mate with him. As it happened all her available funds were tied up in a stock deal.

Gladly Philip sent the $18. He met the train the widow named; he awaited several trains. No widow tripped out from one of them nor even fell, stumbled or was thrown out.

At Philip's mournful request the police investigated. They learned that at the two addresses in Rochester the widow gave had lived a man whose wife received numerous letters. The Rochester police say Philip's anticipated mate is known variously as Mrs. Hatch, Mrs. Mack and Mrs. Loevere.

FOUND AFTER 21 YEARS.

Man Whose Mother Thought He Was Drowned Will Go Home.

Pratt, Kan.—Charles M. Short, who has been mourned as dead by his mother, Mrs. M. A. Annett of St. Joseph, Mo., has been found in this city and is alive and well.

Short tells a peculiar story of a roaming life, which he has at last decided to stop and go home to his mother. About twenty-one years ago Short left his home at Excelsior Springs, Mo., and started out for himself.

He went to San Francisco, where he went on the seas as a sailor. He never wrote his mother, but a word to a cousin in Nebraska gave the information that he was a sailor on a certain boat. This vessel was reported sunk, and there was no report of Short's name in the list of survivors.

His mother then mourned him for dead until recently a flash came over the wire from the cousin in Nebraska that Short had been found.
